SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $1 YEAR

Established 1871—Volume 45

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

Mile Creek graded school closed May 20, after a most successful favor of an extra levy of four is a list of the petit jurors for mills for school purposes in their this term. district. Martin district already A. Frank Day, had a levy of four mills, the re-cent election giving them eight J. E. Allgood, Judge M. We

The Easley high school com- Garfield Lesley, mencement exercises will be J. L. Carson, eld May 28 31. There are sev- T. T. Barton. n members of the graduating class this year. D. W. Junius C. Boggs, Daniel, of Clemson, will deliver T. Guy Keith the literary address Monday J. W. Parrott,

The voters of Montvale school Julius M. Bolding, B. C. Mauldin, district Saturday voted in favor Jas. R. Porter, D. E. Lawrence, of an extra levy of four mills Thos. A. Stewart, L. E. Kelley, for school purposes. This makes a special levy of eight mills for this district. The vote Satur-day was 16 for and 3 against. The patrons of this district have also petitioned for compulsory will be the next?

Wade H. Chastain, one of the public spirited citizens of the county, has offered, free of rent Saterfield, and Mrs. D. B. Sater gy in the Church of England who are of military age will be ordained duranter the school house for the use of the school in teaching practical agriless be the cause of much real and lasting good. We understand that the trustees will accept his offer and will get a graduate of Clemson college as teacher, so that he may teach agriculture besides the regular studies. Montvale is one of the leading rural schools of the county and is making rapid strides toward being the very best.

Pleasant Grove News Notes

Well, Mr. Editor, cotton thin-

Rose Mayfield of Marietta

cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. their family and by hard work many years and thousands of every thing around them. dollars worth of timber has been | Their declining days we hope damaged. The Valley Lumber will be their happiest ones. Co. has suffered a big loss. will be entirely lost.

Well. Mr. Editor, the last I light to have his friends around she was put to set on fifteen birthday and he always celeeggs and when they were hatch- brates that day. are at large and the old hen is tending the family reunion at when she sat on them.—Ed.)

was equal to an old time camp-A heavy hail storm and rain passed over this section Sunday. Some of the hail stones were section was in this section on business last week. A Farmer.

Roll Calling at Six Mile Church

church I have been authorized never be a guest of that reunion to notify, through the colums of beyond this vale of tears. B. The Pickens Sentinel, all members of said church to be present on Saturday evening before the second Sunday in June. The f this is to have the

Summer Term of Court

The regular summer term of court for Pickens county will convene June 7, the first Mondocket this time and court is not Martin school district voted in three or four days. Following F. B. Ponder,

Judge M. Welborn,

W. Thomas Freeman

R. B. Anthony,

D. F. Sutherland,

Jas. A. Hendricks

R. M. Hill,

O. D. Epps,

W. R. Taylor,

J. A. Philpot,

O. L. Craig. J. B. Jones.

P. S. Robins, S. J. Nalley,

Ben Holliday, W. E. Nelson, B. G. Nealey, Oscar L. Morgan, J. R. Pace.

A Family Reunion

According to previous ar education, being the first district rangements some of the relain the county to do this. Who lives and a few friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Saterfield met at their residence on the 12th inst.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather there were not very culture and for experimental many present, four of Mr. and purposes. This is most generous well as Mr. E. H. Galloway Mrs. Saterfield's children as were deprived of the pleasure of being present. However those present certainly had a nice time, but the best part of it all was when dinner was announced which was between 1 and 2 p. m. It was past the writer's usual time of day to replenish his "bread basket" and the sustainance of life had got below the standard mark, so when we faced a table loaded down with killed. every thing that a hungry man ning is the order of the day and say we don't see how justice Turks have been out of ammunition General Green is making good could have been meted out any for a fortnight, but have been re-Crops are looking fine for the me of the year.

M. F. Hester of Pickens had been present and that at a wed-route 2 was among friends in this section today. Rose is a chilnred, 11 of whom are living, lish channel.

The English parliament shows a rechildren. The English parliament shows a rechildren. nice young man and is always and has 42 grand children. Mr. which is being urged by Lord Kitchenand Mrs. Saterfield started in er and the Asquith ministry. Curtis Cox of Greenville is life with nothing except their spending several days with his wearing apparel, have raised and honest dealings now have a There has been more fire in nice home, 107 acres of fertile this section this spring than for land, out of debt and plenty of

We are told that the next day. There are hundreds of acres of those four absent children, E. timbered land where almost all H. Galloway and several more the pine timber is dead and if friends gathered at Mr. Saterit is not worked up at once it field's and had another good time. Mr. Galloway is 61 years May 22 J. F. Rigdon killed a old, hale and hearty, and seems rattle snake with seven rattles, to enjoy life the best we ever This is the second one he has saw for a man of his age. He killed this spring, both being owns a nice farm near Norris, lives at home and it is his de-

The writer is sincerely sorry ed there were twenty-five young turtles and now the creatures that sickness prevented our atunder indictment for damage Bro.B. C. Atkinson's on the 19th because she did not hatch terra- inst. We are told that a goodly pins. Guess why. (We guess number of Mr. and Mrs. Atkinshe didn't hatch terrapins be son's friends were present, some cause she was afraid the "pins" good speaking was had and in terrapins would stick her when Bro. Duff Bolding sang a certain song that the shouting meeting. Some people are so superstilarge as hen eggs, but were not tious (we style it stingy) until thick enough to do much damage they don't believe in a birthday to growing crops. Rain fell in dinner or a family reunion. We see no harm in either when prop-Dr. Cannon of the Hagood erly carried out. If we can en- nate, is dead. He was a Civil war joy the blessings of God and feel veteran. his spirit on such occasions we Govern see no more harm in them than has issued to all state governors his spreading a dinner on the church official invitation for the conference ground. If we are too selfish and hostile to commune together By order of Six Mile Baptist here upon this earth we will

Cateechee Wins Two Games

The Cateechee baseball team llad and see how defeated the Seneca mill team businessed and on the latter's diamond, Satur-U know. uswer day, May 15, by a score of 17 to wantion reames. 7. By a score of 6 to 1 the Caet us teechee team Saturday defeated time the Easley mill team at Easley. Any team wanting a lively Catechee. B.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS

Italy is now in the big Euroday in June. Judge George E. pean war, having declared war year with Miss Bennie Duck-worth principal and Mrs. Kannie There appears to be a light many has declared war on Italy. This makes eleven nations now expected to continue more than in the war. Several other small- which he states Judge Roan never be er nations will probably enter.

In the east the Russians are reported to have been severely repulsed by the German and Austrian armies in the Carpathians.

Dissension prevails in the English cabinet. Winston Spencer Churchill. first lord of the admiralty, and Lord Kitchener, head of the war office, are both now out of favor on account of recent losses on land and sea. A coalition cabinet is expected to be formed that will embrace all parties. Arthur J. Balfour, former premier at the time of the Boer war, is considered Churchill's probable successor and Bonar Law is mentioned to succeed Kitchener.

Fierce fighting is going on in the Dardanelles, but no decided gains are reported on either side.

While on his way to dinner at the Spanish embassy, the Italian ambassador to Berlin was attacked in the street by a patriotic German youngster, who knocked off his hat. The boy was arrested and the imperial government apologized.

Three heads of the Bonaparte family in France, Belgium and Portugal. all grand nephews of Napoleon the ing the war; that all must enter the government's military service.

The Austro-German forces, recently under personal supervision of Emperor William, have driven the Russian armies, stretching for a length of two hundred miles in the Galician hills in northern Austria, back into Poland according to advices from Vienna and Berlin. The report was somewhat confirmed by the hasty departure of Emperor Nicholas from Petrograd to the front. The Teutonic forces claim to have crossed the San river.

Emperor William himself narrowly escaped death from a Russian shell in Galicia, according to a Budapest dispatch. The imperial chauffeur was

The London and Paris war offices could wish for to satisfy a cray-claim the Anglo-French forces and ing appetite, -our pen here fails fleet in the Dardanelles are gaining to tell the rest any more than to daily. An Athens dispatch states the better unless it had been when plenished with an ample supply of war

> Another English merchantman, the Drumcree, has been sunk by a Ger man submarine, torpedoed in the Eng-

Italians have clashed with Austrian troops at Pola. Both the Austro-Hungarian and German ambassadors at Rome have asked for their passports. Declaration of war is expected any moment. It has been definitely announced that the old triple alliance is now shattered.

The German imperial chancellor, in addressing the reichstag, said all had been done by Austria to keep peace between Vienna and Rome, but without success.

The London admiralty office ad mits that an Australian submarine, making its way into the Sea of Marmora, was sunk by the Turks. crew of thirty was lost.

Domestic

The West Virginia state senate adopted a joint resolution petitioning Governor Slaton of Georgia to comheard of the old hen was that him. The 12th of May is his mute the death sentence of Leo Frank to life imprisonment

A concurrent resolution was adopted by the Pennsylvania legislature begging Governor Slaton of Georgia for clemency. In the case of Leo Frank.

Former President Taft, in an address at Painesville, Ohio, declared there was too much competition among the churches and not enough unity. The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly is in session at Newport

News. Governor Manning of South Carolina has ordered the "tiger" laws of that state enforced which means a war against some of the municipal governments of the state.

Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, prominent New York attorney and railroad mag-

Governor Walsh of Massachusetts of governors to convene in Boston in September for their annual meeting. The conference last year was held in Madison, Wis.

Honor Roll Mile Creek School

First Grade-Lee Roper, Grace Tompcin, Lillian Davis, Lena Turner, Arthur Dalton, Ed Bell, Truman McCallister, Jeannette Lumpkins,

Third Grade-Ora Roper. Fourth Grade-Ruth Pickens. Fifth Grade-Odis Dalton. Sixth Grade-Lola Curtis. Seventh Grade-Ola Parsons. MISS BENNIE DUCKWORTH, Principal.

The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly, in session at Newport News, has been greatly stirred by the prohibition agitation started in the proceedings.

PICKENS, S. C., MAY 27, 1915

Judge Arthur Powell of Atlanta, Ga. an intimate friend of the late Judge L. S. Roan, who presided over the Frank trial, has written an open let ter to Governor Slaton of Georgia in lieved Frank was guilty.

The Texas legislature is the fourth American legislative body to adopt resolutions of appeal to Governor Slaton of Georgia, begging for clemency for Leo Frank:

At the international arbitration conference at Mohonk Lake, N. Y., Pres. Wilson's stand was indorsed by unanimous vote amid enthusiastic cheers. The Northern Baptist conference, in administration and peace policies. In his argument to the jury at the close of the Barnes-Roosevelt libel suit at Syracuse, Colonel Roosevelt's counsel, John M. Bowers, begged the jury not to destroy the former president's power in America by deciding against him, but to let him continue in following President Wilson as a guide of the nation.

Washington

Assistant Postmaster General Ro per has granted all postmasters who were ex-Confederate soldiers in the Civil war leave of absence to attend the Confederate reunion at Richmond.

At the conclusion of five days of argument between counsel in the injunction suit of the Riggs National bank against Secretary McAdoo, Comptroller Williams and United States Treasurer Burke, Justice McCoy of the Columbia supreme court took under advisement the dismissal of the case. He sharply criticised the methods of the Riggs institution for persistent violations, and stated from the bench Secretary McAdoo and his associates had not shown any malice.

Frank D. Walsh, chairman of the federal industrial relations commis sion, now conducting an investigation of the Colorado strike situation, gave John D. Rockefeller, Jr., a rigorous grilling on the witness stand which greatly provoked the latter's resent President Wilson has issued a com plimentary statement regarding the New York police service, praising its great efficiency in handling grea crowds.

President Wilson, who is back at he White House from New York where he went to review the fleet emphaticaly announced there would be no bartering with Germany over his recent note, that he meant fully all he said.

Rev. Eugene S. Gaddis of Denver, former head of the Rockefeller's Col orado corporation's socialogical de partment, testified before the federal industrial relations committee that the Colorado miners were justified in rebelling and that the strike was caused by brutes and bullies. Rev. Mr. Gaddis was later let out by the Rockefeller interests, he said, and made an unsuccessful appeal to be reinstated.

Secretary of Agriculture Houston has received an extensive report from the British agricultural office on the first experimental cotton crop raised in New South Wales on the Australian continent.

Clarence Darrow, counsel for the McNamaras, stated to the federal industrial relations commission that, in his opinion, the McNamaras, in being sent to San Quinten prison for life and fifteen years, respectively, for blowing up the Los Angeles Times and killing 120 people and blowing up bridges and other properties were martyrs.

Foreign

The Swiss federal authorities view with displeasure the sinking of the Lusitania and have made suitable representations of disapproval to the German imperial government at Berlin.

The Canadian government steamer, Christine, was rammed in the St. Lawrence river by a Canadian submarine, causing the loss of eight lives. Six of the crew were saved.

Some Americans residing at San Diego report that they were fired on while in their private fishing launch, he New Ancono, while on a fishing cruise in Mexican waters in one of the harbors of Lower California. They report their craft waved the American flag. Marriage by proxy has been made legal in France by a special act of the chamber of deputies. The first to avail themselves of the new law were Alfred Lorin, a Paris attorney, now a soldier at the front, and Mile Marie Martigny. The bridegroom was represented at the ceremony by a close Americans in Mexico recently attacked by Yaqui Indians in an uprising in the state of Sonora have been protected by American marines landed from the Pacific fleet and by ' illa troops which immediately were rushed to the scene to quiet the Indians.

The jury in the Barnes-Roose-

A band of music will be on growing out of the charges made. hand Thursday, June 3, to make things lively.

STATE NEWS ITEMS

A light snow is said to have fallen Spartanburg May 20.

The Monroe Banking & Mercantile o. of Honea Path has failed.

R. H. Kennedy, former chief of polic of Greenville, died Friday night.

Winthrop college commencement ex rcises will be held May 30-June 1.

The annual meeting of the rural free delivery carriers of this state will I held in Florence July 4. Mr. Robert Crisp died at the home of session at Los Angeles, adopted res- his son, A. P. Crisp, last Tuesday night olutions indorsing President Wilson's in Walhalla. He was 92 years old. The Isle of Palms season for 1915 opened Sunday and over 1200 people > visited the popular resort the first day By a vote of 110 to 2 the citizens of the city of Greenville voted in favor of issuing $75,000 bonds for school pur

Clemson college commencement exercises will be held June 5, 6, 7 and 8. Senator E. D. Smith will make the principal address.

J. T. Busby died at his home in Anderson county Sunday. He was promi nent in the Red Shirt campaigns of reconstruction days.

At the last term of court in Greenville Solicitor Bonham secured 31 convictions. A conviction was secured in every case tried except one, and that was a mistrial.

The state finance board last week porrowed $600,000 at 2.44 per cent in terest. This said to be the lowest rate of interest ever secured by the state or money borrowed.

The body of Jesse Huckabee, a white man aged 65 years, was found on an Anderson county public road last Wednesday morning. Heart trouble was the cause of his death.

Golitzen James, a Confederate veterar of Walnut Grove, Spartanburg county fell from his chair into a fire at his home Wednesday night and died before members of his family could reach him.

school districts in 39 South Carolina Eleven rural graded so county received $2,600 of this mouey.

Sixty thousand dollars was paid to 130 high schools in 42 counties last week In Pickens county Central high school got $600, Pickens $550 and Easley $500. This is in addition to $94,800 state aid given to rural graded schools last week A special Southern railway train wil leave Greenville at 8.15 a. m., May 31 to accommodate those from this section who wish to attend the Confederate veterans' reunion in Richmond June 1 2 and 3. Round trip fare from Easley, W. H. Irvine, supposed to be one of the wealthiest men of Greenville, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. His total liabilities are $213,596.42, while he estimates his assets at nearly $500, 000; but he cannot realize actual money which he needs. One item of the liabilities is $3,350 for taxes. Apparently he is "land poor."

Governor Manning is evidently not pleased with the way Mayor Grace of Charleston is handling the blind tiger situation in that city and has appointed special constables to put a stop to the illegal sale of whiskey in Charleston, The constables are in charge of Sheriff Martin. Continual raids on blind tigers are being made by the constables and much whiskey, beer, etc., has been confiscated.

Under the delusion that he was a ailway engineer, and had received instructions to "go ahead," D. H. Hudson, a traveling salesman of Wilkesboro, jumped out of a second story window of a Spartanburg hotel early Sunday morning and, clad only in his night clothes, ran three blacks through the business streets of the city until he was stopped by policemen. Hudson was slightly hurt about the knee in his jump. He was taken to a hospital and, after an their goods and service, which hour or two, was released, having apparently fully recovered.

D. B. Traxler, who was recently aprecommended for the place by Crogressvelt libel suit case at Syracuse, up for some time. After Congressman bargains and without exception N. Y., returned a verdict in Johnson was appointed judge of the new they were well pleased. Be sure ucation, Thos. A. Smith, were favor of Mr. Roosevelt. He was Federal district Senators Tillman and to read their interesting adverbeing sued by Mr. Barnes for Smith recommended Mr. Traxler and he tisement which always appears was appointed. Mr. Metts now has a $75,000 libel suit against Mr. Norwood,

See The Sentinel for Printing union Thursday, June 3.

Progressive Mt. Carmel News

A fine shower of rain came last Sunday evening.

John T. Ferguson installed a system of water works on his premises last week.

Miss Emma Ferguson visited her cousin, Miss Geneva Looper, at Cross Roads last week.

Mark and Otto Hester have returned home after attending the session of a military school at Mt. Pleasant, N. C. M. W. Hester has purchased a binder to harvest his fine grain crop; so you see improvements turned from a visit to her sister are going right along, not with- in Greenville.

standing the war. With a daily mail, a telephone system, acetylene gas lights, automobiles, water works from a joyed a very pleasant outing to cool spring, it's not so bad to Cedar Rock last week. live in the country after all. The greatest need for convenience now is good roads, The hospitable home of Miss following officers were elected:

Lelia Looper was thrown open to the Embroidery club Satur
The hospitable home of Miss following officers were elected:
Miss Buena Johnson, pres.; Mrs.

Dr. Kirksey, vice-pres.; Mrs. day afternoon, May 22. The weather was beautiful and quite After the business session a very a number of the members and pleasant social hour was enjoyed. several visitors were present. After an hour's social chat the charming hostess. A delicious hostess served delicious refresh- ice course was served the guests. ments. The next meeting will Among those present were Mesbe held with Misses Emma and

Alma Ferguson in June. FARMER BILL.

Mr. Vena Shields was the guest of Mr. Arledge last week. Ernest Holcomb, who has been confined to his room for the past few weeks, is able to be out again, James T. Rice attended the Doggette-McCrary wedding in Greenville Tuesday evening, the 18th inst.

Misses Amber and Mamie Williams and Misses Alma and Nancy Lathem attended preaching at Dacusville Sunday.

Leigh Hunt has purchased a new Ford automobile, and he and family visited his brother, Frank, near Travelers Rest last BRUNETTE. Sunday.

News Along Route Five

We had a fine rain Sunday For the scholastic year 1914-1915, 399 evening. It was badly needed. Ive Nicholson and family of tain Grove Saturday and Suncounties received $94,800 state aid. Liberty visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. day. He was accompanied by Durham last Saturday.

Rev. G. E. Crenshaw attended Prince from Six Mile. A large services near Liberty Saturday crowd attended services. and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Breazeale spent Sunday afternoon at the nome of Mr. and Mrs Taylor

Miss Maude Parrott and brother, Claude, spent last Saturday and Sunday with their cousins. Miss Esther and Hovey Gravley, of near Mountain Grove.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Jones May 20 and presented them with a fine boy, which will be called Thomas Dovle Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Durham spent Sunday afternoon with Prince Cannon spent the week-Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Grant. Prof. Ben Fields and family spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Benjamin. Mrs. W. M. Martin has returned home after spending a time. few days with her daughter, spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Erwin Breazeale. Will Aiken's daughter, who has been very ill with fever, is improving nicely under the skill-

Enon McGill of Greenville is ful care of Dr. Kirksey. Mrs. Emma Crenshaw spent last Saturday evening with Mrs

W. M. Martin. FARMER'S BOY.

An Opportunity

It may mean money saved to you to read the new advertisement of Folger, Thornley & Co. this week. This store does not make a specialty of offering "bargains," but have built up a reputation on the quality of in the long run is of the most benefit to their customers. However, at their store can always be found real bargains in odds pointed postmaster at Greenville, has and ends and staple goods which her brother, S. J. Craig, and sistaken charge of the office. It will be they do not like to carry over ter, Mrs. J. P. Hyde, in Greenremembered that W. D. Metts was from one season to another. ville. During her visit she at-This week they are advertising tended the Chicora College comman Johnson, but some charges were real bargains in several lines. preferred against Mr. Metts by J. W. We have noticed several custo-Norwood and the appointment was held mers take advantage of these at the top of the second page.

> Don' fail to bring your family with you to the yeterans' re-

Along Pickens RouteThree

Mrs. Dooley of Toronto, Can-ada, made a flying visit to her former school mate, Miss Mattie Johnson, this week. Rev. L. W. Johnson is assisting Rev. W. H. Lewis in a meeting at Laurens. Mrs. Bigby of Williamston visited her parents recently. Mr. Luther Gravely has arrived from Brevard Institute to spend his vacation with home

The families of Mr. Mack Gravely and Rev. L. W. John-son "combined forces" and en-

The Thimble club held its first meeting with Mrs. Dr. Kirksey on last Friday. The Mrs. Kirksey proved herself a dames Grayely, Ellis and Alex-ander, Misses Mattle, Buena and Ella Johnson, Louise and Annie Gravely, La Venia Perritt. The next meeting will be held with the Misses Johnson.

A party composed of Misses Ethel and Faith Clayton, Myrtle Dunwoody and Prof. Van Clayton motored over from Central Friday to visit the Misses John-

The farmers on our route are progressing nicely with the farm work. The gardens are looking good. Tready we have tried some of a garden produce such as English peas, lettuce, cabbage, etc., and it makes us feel like saying "country life for mine." The many friends of Mrs. E.

P. Holden will be glad to hear she is convalescent after a severe Best wishes to The Sentinel.

CORRESPONDENT. Rev. Charlie Atkinson filled his regular appointment at Moundev. Hubert Wright and Parren

Ansel Cantrell and sister, Miss Emma, visited Roark Powell Sunday and reported a nice time. Benson Gravley and Miss Lillie Cassell visited Miss Mamie Stewart last Sunday.

The small grain is looking very promising after the nice rain. BLUE EYES.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Lewis and family visited Mr. and Mrs.T.C. Lynch Sunday. A large crowd attended preachng at Mountain Grove Sunday. Messrs. Eugene Gillespie and end in North Carolina. Messus. Willie, John and Earle and John Chastain and sister Ruby visited the Misses Gillespie Sunday and report a nice

Thinning cotton is the order Mrs. E. P. Norton, of Pickens. of the day in this community. A family reunion was held at the home of R.S. Lewis Sunday. Elbert Moore and family took dinner at the home of R.S. Porter Sunday. Rev. Bill Holcombe will preach at Montvale school house the fifth Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Misses Ora and Floride Prince of Six Mile attended preaching at Mountain Grove Sunday. D. W. Winchester lost a fine mule last Wednesday.

Ernest Stansell and Miss Annie Edens visited at the home of D. M. Gillespie Sunday. Rev. H. F. Wright preached an excellent sermon at Mountain Grove church Sunday after-

PANSY. noon.

Keowee Valley Notes Miss Selma E. Craig has returned to her home on Keowee river after an extended visit to mencement. Clerk of Court John F. Craig. and eldest son, Frank, of Walhalla accompanied by Supt. Edvisiting the former's relatives on Keowee river Sunday. They made the trip in Mr. Craig's car.

Mr. Wade Williams of Norris visited in this section Saturday night and attended all day servilces at Salem Sunday.